

Fifty Shades of Oregon

Get ready for a first-class, VIP adventure of a lifetime. 6 nights and 7 days indulging in 3 of Oregon's premier properties - including the hotel that started it all!

Experience the highly acclaimed love affair of Anastasia Steele and Christian Grey while writing your own chapter with a romantic trip through Oregon. Start at The Heathman Hotel in downtown Portland - where Ana and Christian had their first rendezvous. Continue on to Cannon Beach and indulge in ocean views as you enjoy the exquisite Stephanie Inn. Then travel to the treasured National Historic Landmark, Timberline Lodge, where mountain adventures await. You'll travel in style all the way, and experience the best these world-class locations have to offer. At the end of the trip you'll have one incredibly unique memory to add to your own story...

THE  HEATHMAN HOTEL

TIMBERLINE

STEPHANIE INN

Begin your Fifty Shades love affair at the Heathman Hotel, Voted the #1 Historic Hotel of America! Experience unparalleled elegance and exceptional service with our unique Personal Concierge service, award winning dining, guest lending library and complimentary Oregon wine tastings - all surrounded by a world-class contemporary art collection!

Constructed in 1937, Timberline Lodge stands on the south slope of Mt Hood at an elevation of 6,000 feet. This beautiful 55,000 square foot National Historic Landmark is still being used for its original intent - a magnificent ski lodge and mountain retreat that perfectly sets the stage for your mountain adventure.

The world-class Stephanie Inn is located on the sands of the Pacific Ocean at the foot of Haystack Rock. Travel through canopied forests to this regal oceanfront destination for relaxation, pampering and delectable regional cuisine. Every meticulous detail of sophistication and luxury at the Inn has been designed with you in mind.
